

Song of Lament [Lyrics, 61 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by David Leonard

Intro 2x

Verse 1

My bones are broken
My skin and flesh waste away
The dark sur-rounds me now
My eyes see no e-scape

Prechorus 1

Surely the Lord has turned His hand a-against me

Chorus

But this I call to mind
So I have this hope
You will never let me go
You're love never lets me go
In the trial, in every storm
You are faithful all the more
So I will preach it to my soul
You will never let me (go)

Turnaround

Verse 2

These chains weigh heavy
My strength has come and gone
All joys for-gotten now
In this Your will is done

Prechorus 2

The Lord, the Lord has trampled me to dust

Chorus

Instrumental

Bridge

No good do I deserve
But Your mercy now I seek
Come lift this fog, o-pen my eyes
Come now restore Your hope in me
For every trial un-der the sun
Cannot compare with what's to come
When Your glory is revealed
And in Your presence I will be healed

Chorus 2

This I call to mind
So I have this hope
You will never let me go
You're love never lets me go
In the trial, in every storm
You are faithful Lord
So I will preach it to my soul
You will never let me go
